Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information in relation to Daniel Kretinsky, Vesa Investments and Royal Mail. We received this request on 16 November 2022. We have considered it under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the “FOI Act”).

Your request

Has Ofcom held any meetings with Daniel Kretinsky / representatives of Daniel Kretinsky / representatives of Vesa Investments regarding Royal Mail since 2020?

If so, how many meetings have been held?

When were the meetings held?

Who attended the meetings from Ofcom's side?

What was on the agenda of any meetings held?

Our response

Ofcom has not held any meetings with Daniel Kretinsky, representatives of Daniel Kretinsky or representatives of Vesa Investments regarding Royal Mail since 2020.

I hope this information is helpful. If you have any queries, then please contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Temiloluwa Dawodu

If you are unhappy with the response you have received in relation to your request for information and/or consider that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review, you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for responding to internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
