Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information concerning the ITV (Channel 3) Licence Awards in 1993.

Your request was received on 11 January 2022 and we have considered it under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Your request

You asked for:

- 1. Detail of the monetary amount bid by each candidate, in each franchise region for the Channel 3 Licence awards in 1991 (effective from 1st Jan 1993)*
- 2. A copy of the correspondence (faxes) sent to each applicant both successful and unsuccessful on the day the decision of the iTC was made.*

Our response

I can confirm that information on the Channel 3 licence applications in 1991 was published in the Independent Television Commission's 1991 report and is available on our website here: ITC-annual-report-and-accounts-1991.pdf \(ofcom.org.uk\). In particular, please see page 12 of the report for information on the cash bids for each regional licence offered by applicants.

In regard to your second request, I can confirm that we do not hold this information.

If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely

Zach Westbrook

If you are unhappy with the response you have received in relation to your request for information and/or consider that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for responding to internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
