Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information in relation to amateur radio call signs. We received this request on 6 January 2022 and have considered it under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You asked

Please may I have a list of the Amateur Radio Callsigns that have been issued within the last 12 months that have a 'G5' prefix, as well as the date they were issued, and whether they had been previously issued or not.

Our response

Please see the attached excel spreadsheet for a complete list of call signs that have been issued for the 12 months up to 31 December 2021 with the 'G5' prefix, along with whether they have been previously issued.

I hope this information is helpful. If you have any queries, then please contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Eleanor Scott

If you are unhappy with the response you have received in relation to your request for information and/or consider that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for responding to internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
