Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information in relation to Section 33 of the Communications Act 2003. We received this request on 15 December 2021 and have considered it under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You asked
Section 33 of the Communications Act 2003 refers to:

- (a) designated electronic communications network,*
- (b) designated electronic communications service,*
- (c) designated associated facility.*

Have any designations of networks, services or facilities been made in terms of section 34 for the purposes of section 33? I am unable find any information regarding this on your website or elsewhere.

Our response

Ofcom is not aware of any designations made for the purposes of section 33 of the Communications Act.

If you have any queries, then please contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Eleanor Scott

If you are unhappy with the response you have received in relation to your request for information and/or consider that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for responding to internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
