Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information in relation to broadband within Eddisbury. We received this request on 5 January 2022 and have considered it under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You asked

Further to the annual data provided in the Connect Nations reports, please would you provide the monthly changes in SFBB, UFBB and Full Fibre availability in the Eddisbury Parliamentary Constituency from December 2019 to January 2022?

Please would you also provide this monthly data for the number of premises below the USO in Eddisbury?

Our response

Ofcom does not hold this information. We do not collect/hold data regarding fixed network coverage on a monthly basis. We collect data three times a year and the results are published on our Connected Nations pages.

If you have any queries, then please contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Eleanor Scott

If you are unhappy with the response you have received in relation to your request for information and/or consider that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for responding to internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
