Dear

21 January 2022

Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information about Reed Specialist Recruitment.

We received this request on 29 December 2021 and have considered it under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Your request

You asked: 'kindly confirm if Reed Specialist Recruitment has ever been licensed to use to use radio frequency (microwave) radiation with through-the-wall sensor portable equipment. If your answer to the request above is positive, kindly email me a copy of the aforementioned license. I look forward to your prompt response'

Our response

I have investigated your request and I can confirm we do not hold any information in relation to your request regarding issued licences that use radio frequency radiation with through-the-wall sensor portable equipment.

I hope this information is helpful. If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Gloria Akinyemi

If you are unhappy with the response you have received in relation to your request for information and/or consider that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for responding to internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
