Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information about Public Health Directors.

We received this request on 5 July 2022 and have considered it under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Your request

You asked: 'I was wondering if you would be able to assist me in getting a list of names and contact details for the Public Health directors in England? I have been able to find a list of names but no contact emails. Is this something that would be accessible?'

Our response

I have investigated your request and can confirm we do not hold this information. You may wish to contact the UK Health Security Agency here or the Department of Health and Social Care here who may be able to assist with your query.

If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Gloria Akinyemi

If you are unhappy with the response you have received in relation to your request for information and/or consider that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for responding to internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Further information about this, and the internal review process can be found on the Information Commissioner's Office here. Alternatively, the Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
