Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information asking for a list of all allocated amateur radio call signs.

We received this request on 9 June 2022 and have considered it under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Your request

You asked:

Under the Freedom of Information Request please would you provide me with a list of ALL ALLOCATED Amateur Radio call signs that have an entry at FOUNDATION, INTERMEDIATE and FULL levels.

Of course, for privacy reasons, I don't expect to get information around who these are allocated to.

Our response

You can find a published list of amateur radio call signs held on our system on our website under 'Spectrum open data'. This shows call signs that are 'allocated' (in use), 'reserved' (recently in use; resting) and 'available' (previously used but now available again).

More information on call sign allocations is available on our website.

If you have any queries, then please contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Katherine Childs

If you are unhappy with the response you have received in relation to your request for information and/or consider that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for responding to internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Further information about this, and the internal review process can be found on the Information Commissioner's Office here.
