Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information about hospitality received by Ofcom Board Members at sporting events in 2022. Your request was received on 11 October 2022 and we have considered it under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Your request

Please could you provide me with a list of Ofcom Board Members who received corporate hospitality at sporting events in 2022 detailing who attended which event and which organisation provided the hospitality?

Our response

None of Ofcom's Board Members received corporate hospitality at any sporting events in 2022.

Ofcom has a Gifts & Hospitality Policy which we publish on our website. Please refer to this for further information.

If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely

Zach Westbrook

If you are unhappy with the response you have received in relation to your request for information and/or consider that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for responding to internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk
