Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information in relation to Rabbit Telecommunications' Base Stations. We received this request on 15 November 2022. We have considered it under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the "FOI Act").

Your request

I'd like to obtain a list of the locations of Rabbit Telecommunications' Base Stations between 1992-1993, ideally with full street address or NGR. They operated a CT2 Telecommunications network and would have used frequencies between 864.1 to 868.1MHz .

They may also have been operated by "Hutchinson Telecommunications" or another subsidiary.

Our response

We do not hold this information.

You may wish to contact the National Archives who may hold the information you have requested.

If you have any queries, then please contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Temiloluwa Dawodu

If you are unhappy with the response you have received in relation to your request for information and/or consider that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review, you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for responding to internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk.
