Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information in relation to complaints about the programme 'I'm a Celebrity...Get Me Out of Here!'. We received this request on 14 November 2022. We have considered it under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the "FOI Act").

Your request

I would like to know how many complaints you have received about Matt Hancock going on the programme "I'm a Celebrity".

Our response

We recently published an article on our news centre which confirms that as of 16 November 2022, we had received approximately 1,100 complaints about Matt Hancock's presence on the show.

Details of the number of complaints that we have received about 'I'm a Celebrity...Get Me Out of Here!' in general can be found on our weekly audience complaints page, which details programmes that have received more than 50 standards complaints in consecutive weeks.

I hope this information is helpful. If you have any queries, then please contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Temiloluwa Dawodu

If you are unhappy with the response you have received in relation to your request for information and/or consider that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review, you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for responding to internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
