Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information concerning the Telecommunications Security Act. Your request was received on 11 October 2022 and we have considered it under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Your request

Directions/instructions received by Ofcom from the Secretary of State for the Department of Digital, Culture, Media and Sport, since 1 October 2022, on the monitoring and reporting of telecoms providers' compliance with the "high risk vendor" provisions of the Telecoms Security Act.

Our response

Ofcom has not yet received any such directions/instructions. The Department of Digital, Culture, Media and Sport (DCMS) advises here that it does intend to issue Ofcom with directions in due course; specifically "The government intends to issue a monitoring direction to Ofcom, using the powers in Section 105Z12 of the Communications Act 2003 (as amended by the Telecommunications (Security) Act 2021)". However, please note that we do not know when this will occur.

If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely

Zach Westbrook

If you are unhappy with the response you have received in relation to your request for information and/or consider that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for responding to internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Further information about this, and the internal review process can be found on the Information Commissioner's Office here. Alternatively, the Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
