Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information in relation to ChatGPT services. We received this request on 22 March 2023. We have considered it under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the “FOI Act”).

Your request

You asked:

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, I would like to request the following information:

- Records of any payments or subscriptions held by Ofcom for ChatGPT services, in the 12 months to 21 March 2023
- Details of reasons given for procuring services

Our response

Ofcom does not have any subscriptions to ChatGPT services, and has not made any payments for ChatGPT services. Therefore we do not hold the information you have requested.

I hope this information is helpful. If you have any queries, then please contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Information Requests

If you are unhappy with the response you have received in relation to your request for information and/or consider that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or

Ofcom
Riverside House
2a Southwark Bridge Road
London SE1 9HA

Switchboard: +44 (0)20 7981 3000 or +44 (0)300 123 3000

www.ofcom.org.uk

- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review, you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for responding to internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
