Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information concerning Royal Mail's legal fees. Your request was received on 28 July 2023 and we have considered it under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Your request

'I am specifically requesting information on how much Royal Mail has spent on legal fees over the past 4 years and before privatization.....

..... Specifically, I am requesting the following information:

How much has Royal Mail spent on legal fees in the past 4 years?

How much did Royal Mail spend on legal fees before privatization?

What were the main reasons for Royal Mail's legal expenses in the past 4 years'

Our response

We do not hold this information.

If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely

Information Requests

If you are unhappy with the response you have received in relation to your request for information and/or consider that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for responding to internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all
