Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for spectrum assignment statistics for London Coronation events and Eurovision. Your request was received on 30 May and clarified on 6 June 2023, and we have considered it under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Your original request

Are you able to supply anonymised data showing exact assignments, locations and times to allow an analysis and an accurate presentation of the requirements?

Clarified as

Individual assignment, frequencies, locations and start finish times for the London Coronation locations, the Windsor Castle Coronation concert and the Eurovision Sound Contest in Liverpool.

Our response

Please find attached the required anonymised information, provided as Excel documents.

If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely

Information Requests

If you are unhappy with the response you have received in relation to your request for information and/or consider that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for responding to internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Further information about this, and the internal review process can be found on the Information Commissioner's Office here. Alternatively, the Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
