Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information concerning addressable broadband market information in the UK. Your request was received on 26 October 2023 and we have considered it under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the “FOI Act”).

Your request

Could i get the total addressable broadband market size in the UK. Could i get this going back the last 5 years?

Our response

We have interpreted your request to mean the total number of UK fixed broadband connections.

This information is available on our website, with updates published on a quarterly basis. For ease of convenience we refer you to Table 16 of our Telecommunications Market Data Update where you will be able to find the relevant information dating back from 2007 up until (and including) our latest 2023 Q2 Telecommunications Market Data Update.

If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely

Information Requests

If you are unhappy with the response you have received in relation to your request for information and/or consider that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for responding to internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all
