Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information dated 6 September 2023 for a particular consultation response. We asked you to clarify your request 21 September and we provided a link to a summarised consultation statement from 2004. You confirmed on 22 September that it was the full consultation response related to the extract from 2004 that you were seeking. We have considered your clarified request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Your request

Please can you disclose an electronic copy of the Office of the Chief Rabbi's response to your consultation on the broadcasting code.

Our response

We have searched for the information requested and we do not hold the full consultation response from 2004 from the Chief Rabbi. This document is 19 years old and Ofcom has retention periods for information it holds. This document is beyond the retention period.

If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely

Information Requests

If you are unhappy with the response you have received in relation to your request for information and/or consider that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for responding to internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Further information about this, and the internal review process can be found on the Information Commissioner's Office here. Alternatively, the Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
