Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information about Highland Radio, Finn Valley FM, and I Radio, Radio North.

We received this request on 18 March 2024 and we have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“the FOI Act”).

Your request

“We want to request copies of the following licences for Highland Radio, Finn Valley FM, and I Radio, Radio North.

We want Ofcom to produce to us, licences for frequencies these radio stations broadcast into NI on, and also obtain details of revenue generated from businesses in NI by these broadcast services, plus the profits obtained from broadcasting into NI

Also details of transmitter locations, broadcast frequencies and transmitter power these stations use to broadcast into NI.

We require this info via electronic mail to [REDACTED] and also via paper form to

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Our response

We do not hold this information. We have checked our licence files and database and have no record of these services, which means that they are not licensed by Ofcom. You may wish to contact the Broadcasting Authority of Ireland.

If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk – quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Request an internal review

If you are unhappy with the response you have received to your request for information, or think that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you do, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will either uphold the original decision, or reverse or modify it.

If you would like to ask us to carry out an internal review, you should get in touch within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for us to complete our internal review, and the time it takes will depend on the complexity of the request. But we will try to complete the review within 20 working days (or no more than 40 working days in exceptional cases) and keep you informed of our progress.

Please email the Information Requests team (information.requests@ofcom.org.uk) to request an internal review.

Taking it further

If you are unhappy with the outcome of our internal review, then you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.
