Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information about Radio licensing for high frequency trading.

We received this request on 15 March 2024 and we have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the FOI Act").

Your request

Please provide a list of licenses, with emission types, locations and power for High Frequency Trading.

Our response

We do not hold this specific information. However, I am able to point you towards Ofcom's Spectrum information portal where you will be able to see the licences issued along with the Licensee names and technical information regarding the licences, which may be helpful.

If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk – quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Information Requests

Request an internal review

If you are unhappy with the response you have received to your request for information, or think that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you do, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will either uphold the original decision, or reverse or modify it.

If you would like to ask us to carry out an internal review, you should get in touch within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for us to complete our internal review, and the time it takes will depend on the complexity of the request. But we will try to complete the review within 20 working days (or no more than 40 working days in exceptional cases) and keep you informed of our progress.

Please email the Information Requests team (information.requests@ofcom.org.uk) to request an internal review.

Taking it further

If you are unhappy with the outcome of our internal review, then you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.
