Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information about the key commitments of the C-DSP services.

We received this request on 18 March 2024 and we have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“the FOI Act”).

Your request

<https://www.ofcom.org.uk/tv-radio-and-on-demand/advice-for-consumers/radio/radio-station-formats-or-key-commitments>

Where can I find the key commitments of the C-DSP services? The list of community radio stations on the 'Community Radio Stations' section of the website appears to include only those available on FM or AM, not DAB/DAB+ licences.

Our response

We do not currently hold the information you have requested as we are in the process of creating a webpage which displays the Key Commitments for C-DSP licensees, in the same way as currently displayed for AM/FM services. While this work is in progress, members of the public can request copies of C-DSP licences, including the Key Commitments, for specific services by emailing broadcast.licensing@ofcom.org.uk.

I hope this information is helpful. If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk – quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Request an internal review

If you are unhappy with the response you have received to your request for information, or think that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you do, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will either uphold the original decision, or reverse or modify it.

If you would like to ask us to carry out an internal review, you should get in touch within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for us to complete our internal review, and the time it takes will depend on the complexity of the request. But we will try to complete the review within 20 working days (or no more than 40 working days in exceptional cases) and keep you informed of our progress.

Please email the Information Requests team (information.requests@ofcom.org.uk) to request an internal review.
