Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information about court cases related to GSM Gateways.

We received this request on 6 March 2024, which we have considered under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“the FOI Act”).

Your request

The following information has been requested by you:

“Please provide a complete list of all pending and existing UK (England) court cases, at any stage, that relate directly or indirectly to the operation of GSM Gateways.”

Our response

Ofcom does not have a list of all pending and existing court cases relating directly or indirectly to the operation of GSM gateways. Court judgments may be accessible via websites such as Find case law - The National Archives. In addition, we are aware of three cases currently before the High Court:

- Capitol Network Services LLP v Ofcom. Claim No.: KB-2023-002820.
- Edge Telecommunications Ltd v Ofcom. Claim No.: QB-2022-001364
- Tektyte Limited v Ofcom. Claim No.: QB-2022-001366.

I hope this information is helpful. If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk – quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Information Requests

Request an internal review

If you are unhappy with the response you have received to your request for information, or think that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you do, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will either uphold the original decision, or reverse or modify it.

If you would like to ask us to carry out an internal review, you should get in touch within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for us to complete our internal review, and the time it takes will depend on the complexity of the request. But we will try to complete the review within 20 working days (or no more than 40 working days in exceptional cases) and keep you informed of our progress.

Please email the Information Requests team (information.requests@ofcom.org.uk) to request an internal review.

Taking it further

If you are unhappy with the outcome of our internal review, then you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.
