Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information about taken, available and reserved amateur radio callsigns, as of April 2024.

We received this request on 8 April 2024 and we have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“the FOI Act”).

Your request

I wanted to request information about all callsigns taken, available, and reserved.

Our response

Please find attached, a list of taken, available and reserved callsigns, as of 30 April 2024, which is the date a report was generated from our systems. This list shows the type of licence each callsign is associated with, the current status of each callsign and the date on which each callsign attained that status, where this information is available. Please note that we do not hold a list of completely new callsigns which have never been previously allocated as our system generates new callsigns on demand. You may apply for a callsign via this link: Ofcom Licensing services

More information on callsign allocations is available on our website.

I hope this information is helpful. If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk – quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Information Requests

Request an internal review

If you are unhappy with the response you have received to your request for information, or think that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you do, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will either uphold the original decision, or reverse or modify it.

If you would like to ask us to carry out an internal review, you should get in touch within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for us to complete our internal review, and the time it takes will depend on the complexity of the request. But we will try to complete the review within 20 working days (or no more than 40 working days in exceptional cases) and keep you informed of our progress.

Please email the Information Requests team (information.requests@ofcom.org.uk) to request an internal review.

Taking it further

If you are unhappy with the outcome of our internal review, then you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.
