Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information about Technology Tracker Data.

We received this request on 27 August 2024 and we have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“the FOI Act”).

Your request

“...South Yorkshire Mayoral Combined Authority and I am researching the digital divide within the region.

Please could I have the data for Table 48 (Table QE2) and Table 63 but shown at either a South Yorkshire level or ideally Local Authority (Barnsley, Doncaster, Rotherham & Sheffield)?”

Our response

Ofcom does not hold information regarding the data you have requested at either a South Yorkshire or Local Authority (Barnsley, Doncaster, Rotherham and Sheffield) level.

If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk – quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Information Requests

Request an internal review

If you are unhappy with the response you have received to your request for information, or think that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you do, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will either uphold the original decision, or reverse or modify it.

If you would like to ask us to carry out an internal review, you should get in touch within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for us to complete our internal review, and the time it takes will depend on the complexity of the request. But we will try to complete the review within 20 working days (or no more than 40 working days in exceptional cases) and keep you informed of our progress. Please email the Information Requests team (information.requests@ofcom.org.uk) to request an internal review.

Taking it further

If you are unhappy with the outcome of our internal review, then you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner’s Office.
