Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information concerning the data set for the Spectrum allocation use table.

Your request was received on 4 September 2024 and we have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“the FOI Act”).

Your request

I am interested in the data that is listed under ‘Spectrum Allocation Use Table’. Would it be possible to provide the most up to date data set? The download link on the gov.uk website does not work.

Our response

The current version can be found here and the data set here. Please note that we are in the process of updating the UK Frequency Allocation Table) with the World Radiocommunication Conference (WRC) 2023 changes. The updated versions will be put on our website once they are ready.

If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk – quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Information Requests

Request an internal review

If you are unhappy with the response you have received to your request for information, or think that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you do, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will either uphold the original decision, or reverse or modify it.

If you would like to ask us to carry out an internal review, you should get in touch within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for us to complete our internal review, and the time it takes will depend on the complexity of the request. But we will try to complete the review within 20 working days (or no more than 40 working days in exceptional cases) and keep you informed of our progress. Please email the Information Requests team (information.requests@ofcom.org.uk) to request an internal review.

Taking it further

If you are unhappy with the outcome of our internal review, then you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner’s Office.
