SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION FOR THE RECIPIENT OF THIS NOTICE

Orders under paragraph 20(4) of the Code

1. An order under paragraph 20(4) of the Code is an order which imposes on us and you an agreement. The effect of such an agreement would be [to confer the Code Rights on us / provide for the Code Rights to bind you].
2. The court may only make an order under paragraph 20(4) of the Code if it thinks that both of the following conditions are met:
 - a. the prejudice caused to you by the order is capable of being adequately compensated by money; and
 - b. the public benefit likely to result from the making of the order (having regard to the public interest in access to a choice of high quality electronic communications services) outweighs the prejudice to you.
3. The court may not make such an order if it thinks that you intend to redevelop all or part of the land to which the Code Rights would relate, or any neighbouring land, and could not reasonably do so if the order were made.
4. Paragraphs 23 and 24 of the Code contain further detail about the terms of the agreement that the court may impose. And paragraph 22 of the Code states that such an agreement takes effect for all purposes of the Code as an agreement under Part 2 of the Code between the Operator and the relevant person.
5. The court also has the power to order us to pay you compensation for any loss or damage that you have sustained or will sustain as a result of the exercise of the Code Rights. Paragraphs 25 and Part 14 of the Code contain further detail about this.

[Orders under paragraph 27(2) of the Code

6. An order under paragraph 27(2) of the Code is an order which [confers on us/provides for you to be bound by] such temporary code rights as appear to the court reasonably necessary for securing the objective set out in paragraph 27(3) of the Code. This objective is that, until the proceedings under paragraph 20 and any proceedings under paragraph 40 of the Code are determined, the service provided by our network is maintained and the Existing Apparatus is properly adjusted and kept in repair.
7. Paragraphs 23 and 24 of the Code contain further detail about the terms of the temporary agreement that the court may impose.
8. The court also has the power to order us to pay you compensation for any loss or damage that you have sustained or will sustain as a result of the exercise of the Code Rights. Paragraphs 25 and 84 of the Code contain further detail about this.]
