Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information concerning a copy of a response to the Welsh Language Commissioner. We received this request on 9 July 2025 and we have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the “FOI Act”).

Your request & our response

A copy of your response to the “Stakeholder Perception Survey: Regulatory Work of the Welsh Language Commissioner.” We understand that this survey was conducted around January 2024 and that the Commissioner prepared an online form for organisations to submit their information.

A copy of your response to the consultation on the Draft Enforcement Policy of the Welsh Language Commissioner, which was held between December 2024 and January 2025.

We do not hold this information.

If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk – quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Request an internal review

If you are unhappy with the response you have received to your request for information, or think that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you do, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will either uphold the original decision, or reverse or modify it.

If you would like to ask us to carry out an internal review, you should get in touch within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for us to complete our internal review, and the time it takes will depend on the complexity of the request. But we will try to complete the review within 20 working days (or no more than 40 working days in exceptional cases) and keep you informed of our progress. Please email the Information Requests team (information.requests@ofcom.org.uk) to request an internal review.

Taking it further

If you are unhappy with the outcome of our internal review, then you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner’s Office.
