

Question	Your response
Question 1: Do you agree that a new regulatory framework for Public Service Media (PSM) delivery should support a more flexible 'service neutral' delivery approach that is more outcomes focused?	Agreed, as long as the PSM delivery is "Neutral" and "Balanced".
Question 2: Do you agree with our proposals for a clear accountability framework?	Agree with your proposals for a clear accountability framework
Question 3: What do you think should be included in the PSM 'offer'?	Separated Business's for News(Information) Broadcasting, and Commercial(Entertainment) Broadcasting, across all Channels.
Question 4: What options do you think we should consider on the terms of PSM availability?	Already there, transmissions are available via analogue and digital.
Question 5: What are the options for future funding of PSM and are there lessons we can learn from other countries' approaches?	Funding as now, with finance provided by Commercial Broadcasting, with, in the case of the BBC, added finance from the Public Purse (License Money)
Question 6: What do you think about the opportunities for collaboration we have referred to? Are there other opportunities or barriers we haven't identified?	My input, is that, there should be no collaboration between Information Broadcasting and Commercial Broadcasting, apart from use of Facilities.
Question 7: What are your views on the opportunities for new providers of PSM?	Manifold, as a free democracy, they should be welcome as requested, as long as they abide and, are controlled by Ofcom's Broadcasting Code.
