Volume 2: The causes and impacts of online harm

Ofcom's Register of Risks

Question 1:
i)	Do you have any comments on Ofcom's assessment of the causes and impacts of online harms?
Response:
ii)	Do you think we have missed anything important in our analysis? Please provide evidence to support your answer.
Response:
iii)	Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)
Response:

Question 2:
i)	Do you have any views about our interpretation of the links between risk factors and different kinds of illegal harm? Please provide evidence to support your answer.
Response:
ii)	Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)
Response:

Volume 3: How should services assess the risk of online harms?

Governance and accountability

Question 3:
i)	Do you agree with our proposals in relation to governance and accountability measures in the illegal content Codes of Practice?
Response:
ii)	Do you think we have missed anything important in our analysis? Please provide evidence to support your answer.
Response:
iii)	Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)
Response:

Question 4:
i)	Do you agree with the types of services that we propose the governance and accountability measures should apply to?
Response: I think it is important to establish the principle beyond all reasonable doubt that whether or not children are judged to be likely to access a service, if evidence emerges that children are in fact accessing it then that service's status changes with all that follows from that and the service is obliged to act to improve its child protection systems as soon as it becomes aware that children are in fact coming to them. The threshold number of children should be very low. This may matter, for example, if pornography or illegal or harmful material starts appearing persistently in places where it would not otherwise be expected. Years ago CSAM used to appear in Usenet Newsgroups which were devoted to topics that had no obvious connection with anything illegal, for example (paraphrasing), flower arranging or hill-walking. The IWF had to develop a statistically robust measure for determining when to act against such groups. I imagine any material, under any heading, which the BBFC would refuse to classify will automatically qualify as harmful and eventually, one hopes, the law will be changed to make it illegal in any event and therefore it should not be accessible on any online services which are accessible from a UK IP address.
ii)	Please explain your answer.
Response:
iii)	Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)
Response: no

Question 5:
-------------	--

i)	Are you aware of any additional evidence of the efficacy, costs and risks associated with a potential future measure to requiring services to have measures to mitigate and manage illegal content risks audited by an independent third-party?
Response:
ii)	Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)
Response:

Question 6:
i)	Are you aware of any additional evidence of the efficacy, costs and risks associated with a potential future measure to tie remuneration for senior managers to positive online safety outcomes?
Response:
ii)	Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)
Response:

Service's risk assessment

Question 7:
i)	Do you agree with our proposals?
Response:
ii)	Please provide the underlying arguments and evidence that support your views.
Response:
iii)	Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)
Response:

Specifically, we would also appreciate evidence from regulated services on the following:

Question 8:
i)	Do you think the four-step risk assessment process and the Risk Profiles are useful models to help services navigate and comply with their wider obligations under the Act?
Response:
ii)	Please provide the underlying arguments and evidence that support your views.
Response:

iii) Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)

Response:

Question 9:

i) Are the Risk Profiles sufficiently clear?

Response:

ii) Please provide the underlying arguments and evidence that support your views.

Response:

iii) Do you think the information provided on risk factors will help you understand the risks on your service?

Response:

iv) Please provide the underlying arguments and evidence that support your views.

Response:

v) Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)

Record keeping and review guidance

Question 10:

i) Do you have any comments on our draft record keeping and review guidance?

Response:

ii) Please provide the underlying arguments and evidence that support your views.

Response:

iii) Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)

Response:

Question 11:

i) Do you agree with our proposal not to exercise our power to exempt specified descriptions of services from the record keeping and review duty for the moment?

Response:

ii) Please provide the underlying arguments and evidence that support your views.

Our approach to the Illegal content Codes of Practice

Question 12:

- i) Do you have any comments on our overarching approach to developing our illegal content Codes of Practice?

Response:

- ii) Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)

Response:

Question 13:

- i) Do you agree that in general we should apply the most onerous measures in our Codes only to services which are large and/or medium or high risk?

Response:

- ii) Please provide the underlying arguments and evidence that support your views.

Response:

- iii) Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)

Response:

Question 14:

- i) Do you agree with our definition of large services?

Response:

- ii) Please provide the underlying arguments and evidence that support your views.

Response:

- iii) Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)

Response:

Question 15:
i)	Do you agree with our definition of multi-risk services?
Response:
ii)	Please provide the underlying arguments and evidence that support your views.
Response:
iii)	Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)
Response:

Question 16:
i)	Do you have any comments on the draft Codes of Practice themselves?
Response:
ii)	Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)
Response:

Question 17:
i)	Do you have any comments on the costs assumptions set out in Annex 14, which we used for calculating the costs of various measures?
Response:
ii)	Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)
Response:

Content moderation (User to User)

Question 18:
i)	Do you agree with our proposals?

Automated content moderation (User to User)

Question 20:
i)	Do you agree with our proposals?
Response:
ii)	Please provide the underlying arguments and evidence that support your views.
Response:
iii)	Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)
Response:

Question 21:
i)	Do you have any comments on the draft guidance set out in Annex 9 regarding whether content is communicated 'publicly' or 'privately'?
Response:
ii)	Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)
Response:

Do you have any relevant evidence on:

Question 22:
i)	Accuracy of perceptual hash matching and the costs of applying CSAM hash matching to smaller services;
Response: If no csam is ever found on a service or to have been distributed by a service it would be bizarre nevertheless to require them to deploy hash matching technology. However, otherwise, irrespective of its size, if it is established that in fact csam is being persistently stored or distributed, or the risk assessment indicates that it is a material risk then the deployment of hash matching technology should be mandatory.

ii)	Please provide the underlying arguments and evidence that support your views.
Response:
iii)	Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)
Response:

Question 23:

i)	Ability of services in scope of the CSAM hash matching measure to access hash databases/services, with respect to access criteria or requirements set by database and/or hash matching service providers;
Response:
ii)	Please provide the underlying arguments and evidence that support your views.
Response:
iii)	Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)
Response:

Question 24:

i)	Costs of applying our CSAM URL detection measure to smaller services, and the effectiveness of fuzzy matching for CSAM URL detection;;
Response:
ii)	Please provide the underlying arguments and evidence that support your views.
Response:
iii)	Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)
Response:

Question 25:

i)	Costs of applying our articles for use in frauds (standard keyword detection) measure, including for smaller services;
Response:
ii)	Please provide the underlying arguments and evidence that support your views.
Response:
iii)	Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)
Response:

Question 26:

- i) An effective application of hash matching and/or URL detection for terrorism content, including how such measures could address concerns around 'context' and freedom of expression, and any information you have on the costs and efficacy of applying hash matching and URL detection for terrorism content to a range of services.

Response: Privacy laws were never intended to provide assistance, succour or comfort to lawbreakers . In Illinois v Caballes the US Supreme Court decided there was no "legitimate privacy interest in possessing contraband". United States v Place, the Supreme Court held that the use of sniffer dogs at airports does not constitute an unlawful search. And at least one legal scholar thought it highly likely a future Supreme Court would "analogize" and adopt the same reasoning if a case were to come before it concerning combatting child sexual abuse on the internet. I am sure this is what the general public would expect and that has been borne out by survey evidence Thus, without having to go so far as to ban encryption or any encrypted services, if technologies exist which can reliably detect illegal content or behaviour in a service which utilises encryption further down the line, then the use of such technologies should be mandatory in relation to relevant services.

Response:

Recommender system testing (U2U)

Question 34:

- i) Do you agree with our proposals?

Response:

- ii) Please provide the underlying arguments and evidence that support your views.

Response:

- iii) Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)

Response:

Question 35:

- i) What evaluation methods might be suitable for smaller services that do not have the capacity to perform on-platform testing?

Response:

- ii) Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)

Response:

We are aware of design features and parameters that can be used in recommender system to minimise the distribution of illegal content, e.g. ensuring content/network balance and low/neutral weightings on content labelled as sensitive.

Question 36:

- i) Are you aware of any other design parameters and choices that are proven to improve user safety?

Response:

- ii) Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)

Response:

Enhanced user control (U2U)

Response:

Do you have any supporting information and evidence to inform any recommendations we may make on blocking sharers of CSAM content? Specifically:

Question 41:

- i) What are the options available to block and prevent a user from returning to a service (e.g. blocking by username, email or IP address, or a combination of factors)?

Response:

- ii) What are the advantages and disadvantages of the different options, including any potential impact on other users?

Response:

- iii) Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)

Response:

Question 42:

- i) How long should a user be blocked for sharing known CSAM, and should the period vary depending on the nature of the offence committed?

Response:

- ii) Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)

Response:

There is a risk that lawful content is erroneously classified as CSAM by automated systems, which may impact on the rights of law-abiding users.

Question 43:

- i) What steps can services take to manage this risk? For example, are there alternative options to immediate blocking (such as a strikes system) that might help mitigate some of the risks and impacts on user rights?

Response:

- ii) Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)

Cumulative Assessment

Question 45:
i)	Do you agree that the overall burden of our measures on low risk small and micro businesses is proportionate?
Response:
ii)	Please provide the underlying arguments and evidence that support your views.
Response:
iii)	Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)
Response:

Question 46:
i)	Do you agree that the overall burden is proportionate for those small and micro businesses that find they have significant risks of illegal content and for whom we propose to recommend more measures?
Response:
ii)	Please provide the underlying arguments and evidence that support your views.
Response:
iii)	Is this response confidential? (if yes, please specify which part(s) are confidential)
Response:

Question 47:
i)	We are applying more measures to large services. Do you agree that the overall burden on large services proportionate?
Response:

ii)	Please provide the underlying arguments and evidence that support your views.
