- (4) Any bidder which, in the first principal stage round, specifies that it wishes to bid for (or is deemed to have bid for) zero 26 GHz lower lots, zero 26 GHz upper lot lots and zero 40 GHz lots, shall be excluded from the award process and shall not receive a refund of any sums which the bidder has paid as a deposit under these Regulations, which shall (where not already forfeited) be forfeited together with any interest which has accrued on the deposit.

(2) The sets of bids which must be made for a particular lot type are determined by the number of lots of that lot type (specified by a bidder on the auction system) in respect of which the bidder wishes to bid at the clock price (the “target number”).

(3) The only sets of bids (and the only bids within those sets) which may be made are those described in regulations 28 to 31.

(4) The target number of lots may be any quantity from (and including) zero up to and including the total number of lots of that type which are available in the award process.

(5) The target number may be the same, higher or lower than the bidder's notified posted demand for that lot type.

(6) Each bid within the set is for a quantity of lots (of a particular lot type) and a sum which that bidder is willing to pay for a licence which includes those lots.

(7) If a bidder does not specify a target number of lots for any or all lot types, regulation 31 applies.

The set of bids to be submitted if a bidder wishes to maintain demand at the clock price in the current round

28.—(1) In any principal stage round, if a bidder wishes to bid at the clock price for the same number of lots of a particular type as the bidder's notified posted demand for that lot type—

- (a) it must specify a target number of lots on the auction system (within the time period for bidding) which is the same quantity of lots comprised within the notified posted demand for that bidder for that lot type; and
- (b) the set of bids which must be submitted by that bidder comprises—
 - (i) a bid for all of the lots comprised within the specified target number of lots at a price per lot which is the clock price; and also
 - (ii) a bid for all of the lots comprised within the target number of lots at every price level that exists from and including the opening price up to but not including the clock price.

(2) The set of bids described in paragraph (1)(b) is referred to as a “set of bids to maintain demand”.

The set of bids to be submitted if a bidder wishes to increase demand for lots at the clock price in the current round

29.—(1) In any principal stage round, if a bidder wishes to bid at the clock price for more lots of a particular type than the quantity comprised within the notified posted demand for that bidder for that lot type—

- (a) that bidder must specify a target number of lots on the auction system (within the time period for bidding) for that lot type which is higher than the quantity comprised within the notified posted demand for that bidder for that lot type; and
- (b) the set of bids which must be submitted by that bidder comprises—
 - (i) a bid for all of the lots comprised within the specified target number of lots at every price level that exists from and including the opening price up to and including the clock price;
 - (ii) a bid for the quantity of lots comprised within the notified posted demand for that bidder, at every price level that exists from and including the opening price up to and including the clock price; and
 - (iii) a bid for each number of lots, which is a number of lots (if any) that exists between the notified posted demand for that bidder for that lot type and the specified target number of lots, at every price level that exists from and including the opening price and up to and including the clock price;

(2) A bidder to which paragraph (1) applies must also nominate a price on the auction system (for the purposes of bid ranking for determining processed demand in accordance with regulation 35) which is—

- (a) the opening price;
- (b) the clock price; or
- (c) any price falling within the range of prices between the opening price and the clock price.

(3) The set of bids described in paragraph (1)(b) is referred to as a “set of bids to increase demand”.

The set of bids to be submitted if a bidder wishes to decrease demand at the clock price in the current round

30.—(1) In any principal stage round, if a bidder wishes to bid at the clock price for fewer lots of a particular type than the quantity comprised within the notified posted demand for that bidder for that lot type that bidder must—

- (a) specify the target number of lots on the auction system (within the time period for bidding) for that lot type which is lower than the quantity of lots comprised within the notified posted demand for that bidder for that lot type;
- (b) nominate a price on the auction system; and
- (c) submit the required set of bids.

(2) The price to be nominated is the price at which the bidder wishes to change the quantity of lots it bids for from that quantity comprised in the notified posted demand for that lot type for that bidder to the target number of lots in the current round.

(3) The nominated price may be any price in whole thousands of pounds which is—

- (a) the opening price;
- (b) the clock price; or
- (c) any price falling within the range of prices between the opening price and the clock price.

(4) If a bidder specifies the target number of lots which is lower than that bidder's notified posted demand for that type of lot by two or more lots, that bidder must also indicate on the auction system whether it wishes to submit either—

- (a) a simple set of bids to decrease demand; or
- (b) an all or nothing set of bids to decrease demand.

(5) If a bidder specifies a target number of lots which is lower than that bidder's notified posted demand for that type of lot by a single lot, that bidder shall be deemed to have submitted a simple set of bids to decrease demand.

(6) The set of bids which must be submitted if the bidder wishes to submit a simple set of bids to decrease demand are those described in paragraphs (7), (8) and (9).

(7) If the nominated price is the clock price, the set of bids are—

- (a) a bid for all of the lots comprised within the target number of lots at the clock price;
- (b) a bid at every price level that exists from and including the opening price up to and including the clock price for all of the lots comprised within the bidder's notified posted demand; and
- (c) a bid for each quantity of lots which is higher than the target number of lots, and lower than the quantity comprised within the bidder's notified posted demand, at the nominated price.

(8) If the nominated price is the opening price, the set of bids are—

- (a) a bid for all of the lots comprised within the target number of lots at the opening price;
- (b) a bid for all of the lots comprised within the target number of lots at every price level that exists from the opening price up to and including the clock price; and
- (c) a bid for all of the lots comprised within the bidder's notified posted demand at the opening price; and
- (d) a bid for each quantity of lots which is higher than the target number of lots and lower than the quantity comprised within the notified posted demand for that bidder, at the opening price;

(9) If the nominated price is higher than the opening price but lower than the clock price, the set of bids are—

- (a) a bid for all of the lots comprised within the target number of lots at the nominated price;

- (b) a bid for all of the lots comprised within the target number at every price level which exists within the portion of the price range which is higher than the nominated price and up to and including the clock price; and
 - (c) a bid for a quantity of lots equal to that bidder's notified posted demand at every price level that exists from and including the opening price up to and including the nominated price; and
 - (d) a bid for each quantity of lots which is higher than the target number of lots and lower than the quantity equal to that bidder's notified posted demand, at the nominated price.
- (10) The set of bids which must be submitted if the bidder wishes to submit an all or nothing set of bids to decrease demand are those described in paragraphs (11), (12) and (13).
- (11) If the nominated price is the clock price, the set of bids are—
- (a) a bid for all of the lots comprised within the target number of lots at the clock price; and
 - (b) a bid for all the lots comprised within the bidder's notified posted demand at every price level that exists from and including the opening price up to and including the clock price.
- (12) If the nominated price is the opening price, the set of bids are—
- (a) a bid for all of the lots comprised within the target number of lots at the opening price;
 - (b) a bid for all of the lots comprised within the target number of lots at every price level which exists within the portion of the price range which is higher than the opening price and up to and including the clock price;
 - (c) a bid for a quantity of lots equal to the bidder's notified posted demand at every price level that exists from and including the opening price and up to and including the clock price.
- (13) If the nominated price is higher than the opening price but lower than the clock price, the set of bids are—
- (a) a bid for all of the lots comprised within the target number of lots at the nominated price;
 - (b) a bid for all of the lots comprised within the target number of lots at every price level which exists within the portion of the price range which is higher than the nominated price and up to and including the clock price; and
 - (c) a bid for a quantity of lots equal to the bidder's notified posted demand at every price level that exists from and including the opening price and up to and including the clock price.
- (14) Simple sets of bids to decrease demand and all or nothing sets of bids to decrease demand are referred to as a "set of bids to decrease demand".

Failure to specify demand for lots on the auction system within the time period for bidding in a round

- 31.—(1) This paragraph applies to a bidder where, in relation to any lot type, that bidder—
- (a) has not specified on the auction system within the time period for bidding the target number of lots which it wishes to bid for; and
 - (b) that bidder had a notified posted demand of zero for that lot type following the most recent round;
- (2) A bidder to which paragraph (1) applies shall be deemed to have submitted a set of bids to maintain demand for that lot type.
- (3) This paragraph applies to a bidder where, in relation to any lot type, that bidder—
- (a) has not specified on the auction system within the time period for bidding the target number of lots which it wishes to bid for; and
 - (b) that bidder had a notified posted demand of one or more for lots of that type after the most recent round.
- (4) A bidder to which paragraph (3) applies—

- (a) shall be deemed to have selected a target number of zero lots and nominated the opening price; and
- (b) that bidder shall be deemed to have submitted a set of bids to decrease demand for that lot type.

CHAPTER 4

Bid processing by OFCOM to determine posted demand and excess demand after the end of the second (and each subsequent) principal stage round

Creating a ranking list of sets of bids and carrying out a selection process with regard to sets of bids on the list in order to determine each bidder's posted demand and excess demand

32.—(1) In order to determine each bidder's posted demand after the second (and each subsequent) principal stage round OFCOM shall follow the process in this regulation.

(2) OFCOM shall—

- (a) first, identify all sets of bids to maintain demand;
- (b) second, identify all sets of bids to increase demand;
- (c) third, identify all sets of bids to decrease demand;

(3) Having identified bids OFCOM shall—

- (a) calculate the price point for all sets of bids to decrease demand in accordance with regulation 33; and
- (b) calculate the price point for all sets of bids to increase demand in accordance with regulation 34.

(4) OFCOM shall (having regard to the price points for sets of bids) create a ranking list of all of the sets of bids where the bidder increased demand and all of the sets of bids where the bidder decreased demand in accordance with regulation 35;

(5) OFCOM shall consider sets of bids on the ranking list in order to determine whether or not they are to be accorded removed status and whether or not they are to be accorded reduced status and repeat the process as required by regulations 36, 37 and 38.

(6) After the process is complete OFCOM shall determine posted demand for each bidder for each lot type.

Calculating the price point for all sets of bids where the bidder decreased demand

33.—(1) In relation to each set of bids to decrease demand OFCOM shall calculate the price point in accordance with paragraph (2).

(1) For each set of bids made by a bidder, the price point in relation to that set is a number calculated as—

- (a) the difference in whole thousands of pounds between the nominated price for that set and the opening price; divided by
- (b) the difference in whole thousands of pounds between the clock price and the opening price.

Calculating the price point for all sets of bids where the bidder increased demand

34.—(1) In relation to each set of bids to increase demand OFCOM shall calculate the price point in accordance with paragraph (2).

(1) For each set of bids made by a bidder, the price point in relation to that set is a number calculated as—

- (a) the difference in whole thousands of pounds between the nominated price for that set and the opening price; divided by

- (b) the difference in whole thousands of pounds between the clock price and the opening price.

Creating a ranking list which contains sets of bids to decrease demand and sets of bids to increase demand

35.—(1) OFCOM shall create a list which ranks the sets of bids to decrease demand and the sets of bids to increase demand (the “ranking list”).

- (2) The ranking list shall include sets of bids, irrespective of lot type, on the same list.
- (3) The ranking list shall also include sets of bids to decrease demand and sets of bids to increase demand, on the same list.
- (4) Each of the sets of bids shall be listed in ascending order of price point (irrespective of lot type and irrespective of whether it is a set of bids to decrease demand or a set of bids to increase demand), with sets of bids with lower price points being placed higher in the list than sets of bids with higher price points.
- (5) Where two or more sets of bids have the same price point, OFCOM shall use a method of random selection to determine the relative ranking of those sets of bids on the list.

Selecting sets of bids from the ranking list

36.—(1) OFCOM shall consider each set of bids on the list in turn starting from the top of the ranking list and working towards the bottom of the list, in order to determine if a set of bids would satisfy the criteria to be removed from the ranking list.

- (2) If a set of bids is removed from the ranking list OFCOM shall determine that bidder’s posted demand for that lot type by reference to the bidder’s target number of lots within that set of bids.
- (3) If the set of bids is not removed from the ranking list, OFCOM shall determine if that set of bids can be accorded reduced status.
- (4) If the set of bids is not accorded reduced status, OFCOM shall consider if the next set of bids immediately lower on the list would satisfy the criteria to be removed from the ranking list and, if not, then consider if that set of bids is to be accorded reduced status.

Remaking the ranking list after each selection

37. On each occasion when a set of bids is removed from the ranking list or accorded reduced status OFCOM shall—

- (a) remake the list without including sets of bids which have been removed but including the sets of bids which have been accorded reduced status; and
- (b) consider afresh each set of bids (if any) on the list starting from the top of the new list and working towards the bottom of the list until a set of bids is removed or accorded reduced status, or until completion of the selection process in accordance with regulation 38, whichever happens first.

The completion of the selection process

38. OFCOM shall continue considering sets of bids in turn until—

- (a) OFCOM has considered each set of bids that was submitted in the round at least once; and
- (b) the last set of bids (if any) on the list (or any list which has been remade in accordance with regulation 37) has been considered and not accorded removed status or reduced status.

Currently selected demand for lots of a particular type

39. During the selection process the currently selected demand for lots of a particular type for any particular bidder shall—

- (a) at the beginning of the selection process be set as equal to the posted demand from the most recent round for that bidder in respect of that lot type; and
- (b) be replaced in respect of that bidder for that particular lot type whenever a set of bids for that type of lot from such a bidder is removed or accorded reduced status.

Current excess demand for lots of a particular type

40. At any time during the selection process the current excess demand for lots of a particular type is equal to—

- (a) the sum of currently selected demand for that lot type across all bidders; less
- (b) the total number of lots of that type which are available in the award process.

Criteria for determining if a set of bids to decrease demand is to be removed or accorded reduced status

41.—(1) When determining whether a set of bids to decrease demand on the ranking list can be removed or can be accorded reduced status, OFCOM shall carry out the steps in paragraphs (2) to (10).

(1) In relation to the lot type in question, if the current excess demand is zero or less than zero, the set of bids may not be removed from the ranking list nor accorded reduced status.

(2) If the current excess demand is greater than zero, then OFCOM shall determine whether the set of bids in question can be removed from the ranking list or accorded reduced status.

(3) A set of bids shall be removed if the condition in paragraph (5) is satisfied.

(4) The condition is that if the target number of lots for the set of bids in question were to replace the currently selected demand for lots of that type from the bidder and the current excess demand were to be recalculated on that basis, the recalculated current excess demand would be zero or greater than zero.

(5) If a set of bids is removed OFCOM shall replace the currently selected demand for the bidder in question for the relevant lot type with the target number of lots of that type.

(6) Subject to paragraph (9), if the set of bids is not removed, OFCOM shall consider whether that set of bids is to be accorded reduced status.

(7) That set of bids shall be accorded reduced status if current excess demand for the lot type in question is greater than zero.

(8) If an all or nothing set of bids to decrease demand is not removed, it shall not be accorded reduced status.

(9) If a set of bids is accorded reduced status—

- (a) OFCOM shall subtract the current excess demand from the currently selected demand for the bidder and the lot type in question; and
- (b) the number calculated in accordance with sub-paragraph (a) shall replace the currently selected demand for the bidder in question for the relevant lot type.

Currently used eligibility points for a bidder

42.—(1) At any time during the selection process, the “currently used eligibility points” for any particular bidder is calculated as the sum of—

- (a) currently selected demand for 26 GHz lower lot for that particular bidder multiplied by 2;
- (b) currently selected demand for 26 GHz upper lots for that particular bidder multiplied by 2; and

- (c) currently selected demand for 40 GHz lots for that particular bidder.
- (2) At any time during the selection process, the “current eligibility capacity” for any particular bidder is calculated as the difference between—
 - (a) the bidder’s eligibility limit following the most recent round; and
 - (b) the bidder’s currently used eligibility points.

Criteria for determining if a set of bids to increase demand is to be removed or accorded reduced status for the 26 GHz lower lot type and 26 GHz upper lot type 43.—(1) When determining whether a set of bids to increase demand on the ranking list for 26 GHz lower lots or 26 GHz upper lots is to be removed or accorded reduced status, OFCOM shall carry out the steps in paragraphs (2) to (8).

- (1) In relation to the bidder in question, if the current eligibility capacity is equal to or lower than 1, the set of bids may not be removed nor accorded reduced status.
- (2) If the current eligibility capacity is equal or greater than 2, then OFCOM shall determine whether the set of bids in question can be removed or accorded reduced status.
- (3) A set of bids shall be removed if the condition in paragraph (5) is satisfied.
- (4) The condition is that, if the target number of lots for the set of bids in question were to replace that bidder’s currently selected demand for lots of that type, the bidder’s recalculated current eligibility capacity would be equal to or greater than zero.
- (5) If a set of bids is removed OFCOM shall replace the currently selected demand for the bidder in question for the relevant lot type with the target number of lots.
- (6) If the set of bids is not removed, and current eligibility capacity for the bidder in question is equal or greater than 2, the set of bids shall be accorded reduced status.
- (7) If a set of bids is accorded reduced status—
 - (a) OFCOM shall add the currently selected demand for the bidder in question for the relevant lot type to a number equal to the bidder’s current eligibility capacity divided by 2; and
 - (b) if the number resulting from the calculation in sub-paragraph (a) is a number that is not a whole number, OFCOM shall round down that number to the nearest whole number;
 - (c) the number calculated in accordance with sub-paragraph (a) shall replace the currently selected demand for the bidder in question for the relevant lot type.

Criteria for determining if a set of bids to increase demand is to be removed or accorded reduced status for the 40 GHz lot type

44.—(1) When determining whether a set of bids to increase demand on the ranking list for 40 GHz lots is to be removed or accorded reduced status, OFCOM shall carry out the following steps in paragraphs (2) to (8).

- (1) In relation to the bidder in question, if the current eligibility capacity is equal to 0, the set of bids may not be removed nor reduced.
- (2) If the current eligibility capacity is greater than zero, then OFCOM shall determine whether the set of bids in question can be removed or can be accorded reduced status.
- (3) A set of bids shall be removed if the condition in paragraph (5) is satisfied.
- (4) The condition is that if the target number of lots for the set of bids in question were to replace that bidder’s currently selected demand for lots of that type, the bidder’s recalculated current eligibility capacity would be equal or greater than zero.
- (5) If a set of bids is removed OFCOM shall replace the currently selected demand for the bidder in question for the relevant lot type with the target number of lots.

(6) If the set of bids is not removed, and current eligibility capacity for the bidder in question is greater than zero, the set of bids shall be accorded reduced status.

(7) If a bid is accorded reduced status OFCOM shall increase the currently selected demand for the bidder in question by a number of lots equal to the bidder's current eligibility capacity.

CHAPTER 5

Determination by OFCOM of each bidder's posted demand after the second and subsequent principal stage rounds

Determination by OFCOM of posted demand

45. After the completion of the selection process after the second and subsequent principal stage rounds OFCOM shall determine each bidder's posted demand for each lot type in accordance with regulations 46 and 47.

Posted demand in the case of sets of bids to maintain demand

46. If, for a particular lot type, a bidder specified a target number of lots which was the same quantity as the notified posted demand for that bidder for that lot type, the target number of lots shall be that bidder's posted demand.

Posted demand in the case of sets of bids to increase demand and sets of bids to decrease demand

47. If, for a particular lot type, a bidder specified a target number of lots that is higher than or lower than the quantity of lots which was the notified posted demand for that lot type following the most recent round, that bidder's posted demand for that lot type shall be the same number as that bidder's currently selected demand after the completion of the selection process.

Determination by OFCOM of posted price after the end of the second and subsequent rounds after the completion of the selection process

48.—(1) After the completion of the selection process after the second and subsequent principal stage rounds OFCOM shall determine the posted price for each lot type in accordance with paragraphs (2) to (6).

(2) If the current excess demand for lots of a lot type is greater than zero, OFCOM shall set the posted price for that lot type equal to the clock price for that round for that lot type.

(3) If the current excess demand for lots of a lot type is equal to zero and at least one simple set of bids to decrease demand or one all or nothing set of bids to decrease demand for that lot type has been removed or accorded reduced status, OFCOM shall set the posted price for that lot type equal to the highest nominated price amongst the nominated prices of all simple sets of bids to decrease and all or nothing sets of bids to decrease demand for that lot type which have been removed or accorded reduced status.

(4) If the current excess demand for lots of a lot type is equal to zero and no simple sets of bid to decrease demand and no all or nothing set of bids to decrease demand for that lot type has been removed or accorded reduced status, OFCOM shall set the posted price for that lot type equal to the opening price for that round for that lot type.

(5) If the current excess demand for lots of a lot type is lower than zero, OFCOM shall set the posted price for that lot type equal to the opening price for that round for that lot type.

(6) The posted price for each lot type shall be the same for all bidders.

CHAPTER 6

Determination by OFCOM of excess demand after the second and subsequent principal stage

Determination of excess demand by OFCOM

49.—(1) After the completion of the selection process OFCOM shall determine excess demand for each lot type.

(2) In respect of any particular lot type, the excess demand at the end of the round shall be the same number as that lot type's current excess demand.

CHAPTER 7

Eligibility limits during the principal stage

Eligibility rule

50.—(1) The eligibility points associated with a bidder's submission of a set of bids in each round must not exceed that bidder's eligibility limit for the round.

(2) The eligibility points used in a bidder's submission of a set of bids are the sum of—

- (a) the eligibility points associated with a 26 GHz lower lot multiplied by the number of 26 GHz lower lots which were comprised within that bidder's target number of lots;
- (b) the eligibility points associated with a 26 GHz upper lot multiplied by the number of 26 GHz upper lots which were comprised within that bidder's target number of lots;
- (c) the eligibility points associated with a 40 GHz lot multiplied by the number of 40 GHz lots which were comprised within that bidder's target number of lots.

(3) In this Chapter, a round in relation to which the number of eligibility points used is calculated is referred to as the "current round".

Eligibility points associated with lots

51. The number of eligibility points associated with lots are—

- (a) 2 eligibility points for each 26 GHz lower lot;
- (b) 2 eligibility points for each 26 GHz upper lot; and
- (c) 1 eligibility point for each 40 GHz lot.

Eligibility limit in the first round

52. In the first principal stage round eligibility limits are determined in accordance with regulation 14.

Eligibility limit in the second and subsequent rounds

53. In the second and subsequent principal stage rounds, a bidder's eligibility limit shall be equal to the number of eligibility points used by the bidder in the most recent round.

Eligibility points used by a bidder

54.—(1) The number of eligibility points used by a bidder in the most recent round shall be equal to the number of eligibility points associated with the lots comprised in that bidder's notified posted demand.

(2) The eligibility points associated with lots which are within a bidder's notified posted demand are the sum of—

- (a) the eligibility points associated with a 26 GHz lower lot multiplied by the number of 26 GHz lower lots which were comprised within that bidder's notified posted demand;
- (b) the eligibility points associated with a 26 GHz upper lot multiplied by the number of lots 26 GHz upper lots which were comprised within that bidder's notified posted demand;
- (c) the eligibility points associated with a 40 GHz lot multiplied by the number of 40 GHz lots which were comprised within that bidder's notified posted demand.

CHAPTER 8

Deposits during the principal stage

Deposits during the principal stage

55.—(1) Where, after the end of any principal stage round, the amount a bidder has on deposit with OFCOM for the purposes of the award process is less than the bidder's financial exposure, set out in paragraph (2), OFCOM may, having regard to the desirability of securing an efficient outcome to the principal stage, notify the bidder that it is required to pay a further sum in pounds as a deposit.

(1) A bidder's financial exposure after the end of a principal stage round shall be the amount in pounds which is equal to the sum of—

- (a) that bidder's notified posted demand for 26 GHz lower lots, multiplied by the posted price for 26 GHz lower lots;
- (b) that bidder's notified posted demand for 26 GHz upper lots, multiplied by the posted price for 26 GHz upper lots; and
- (c) that bidder's notified posted demand for 40 GHz lots, multiplied by the posted price for 40 GHz lots.

(2) The further sum shall be an amount determined by OFCOM such that the total amount that the bidder is required to have on deposit is at most the amount set out in paragraph (2).

(3) Any such sum must be paid into OFCOM's bank account with accompanying information which identifies the bidder, by a deadline specified by OFCOM.

(4) Where a bidder does not satisfy the requirements set out in paragraph (4), OFCOM shall notify the bidder of that fact.

Deposit constraint on bidding

56.—(1) Where, after the end of a principal stage round, OFCOM has notified a bidder under regulation 55(5) that it has not complied with the requirement to pay a further sum as a deposit, that bidder—

- (a) may not bid in the next principal stage round nor in any subsequent principal stage rounds;
- (b) in the next principal stage round and any subsequent principal stage rounds;
 - (i) in respect of a lot type for which it had a notified posted demand of zero for that lot type following the most recent round, the bidder shall be deemed to have submitted a set of bids to maintain demand, and
 - (ii) in respect of a lot type for which it had a notified posted demand greater than zero for that lot type following the most recent round, the bidder shall be deemed to have selected a target number of zero lots and nominated the opening price, and deemed to have submitted a set of bids to decrease demand, and
- (c) may not submit an assignment stage form in the assignment stage round and shall be deemed to have made a valid assignment stage bid with a value of zero pounds for each of its assignment stage options.

(2) Such a bidder is not excluded from the award process for that reason.

(3) Any principal stage bids made by that bidder may become winning principal stage bids in accordance with regulation 59.

CHAPTER 9

Publication of information each day

Publication of information at the end of each day during the principal stage

57. After the end of the latest principal stage round to take place on any given day, OFCOM shall publish on their website, in relation to that latest principal stage round—

- (a) the posted price for each lot type; and
- (b) the excess demand for each lot type.

CHAPTER 10

End of principal stage

Number of principal stage rounds

58.—(1) After the completion of the selection process after the end of each principal stage round, OFCOM shall determine whether there shall be a further principal stage round.

(2) A further principal stage round shall occur if, after the end of the most recent round, excess demand, for at least one lot type, equals a positive number greater than zero.

(3) If a further principal stage round is not required, the principal stage shall come to an end.

Determination of the winning principal stage bids

59. When OFCOM have determined that there shall be no further principal stage round, each bidder shall be recorded as having won—

- (a) the number of lots corresponding to their notified posted demand for 26 GHz lower lots following the most recent round;
- (b) the number of lots corresponding to their notified posted demand for 26 GHz upper lots following the most recent round; and
- (c) the number of lots corresponding to their notified posted demand for 40 GHz lots following the most recent round.

Determination of base price

60.—(1) The base price for a 26 GHz lower lot (“26 GHz lower base price”) shall be equal to the posted price for that lot type for the final principal stage round.

(2) The base price for a 26 GHz upper lot (“26 GHz upper base price”) shall be equal to the posted price for that lot type for the final principal stage round.

(3) The base price for a 40 GHz lot (“40 GHz base price”) shall be equal to the posted price for that lot type for the final principal stage round.

Determination of total base price

61.—(1) A reference to a winning bidder’s “total 26 GHz lower base price” is a reference to the 26 GHz lower base price multiplied by the number of 26 GHz lower lots won by that bidder.

(2) A reference to a winning bidder’s “total 26 GHz upper base price” is a reference to the 26 GHz upper base price multiplied by the number of 26 GHz upper lots won by that bidder.

(3) A reference to a winning bidder's "total 40 GHz base price" is a reference to the 40 GHz base price multiplied by the number of 40 GHz lots won by that bidder.

Notification of results to bidders

62. After the end of the final principal stage round, and after the determination of the winning principal stage bids and the determination of the base price for each winning principal stage bid, OFCOM shall notify each bidder of—

- (a) the end of the principal stage;
- (b) the names of the winning bidders, and in respect of each of them—
 - (i) the number of 26 GHz lower lots won and the total 26 GHz lower base price;
 - (ii) the number of 26 GHz upper lots won and the total 26 GHz upper base price; and
 - (iii) the number of 40 GHz lots won and the total 40 GHz base price; and
- (c) the number of 26 GHz lower lots, the number of 26 GHz upper lots and the number of 40 GHz lots not won by any bidder.

Publication of the results of the principal stage

63. After the notification given in accordance with regulation 62, OFCOM shall publish on their website—

PART 6

Assignment stage

CHAPTER 1

Overview

No assignment stage if there are no winning principal stage bidders

65. Where there are no winning bidders following completion of the principal stage there shall be no assignment stage and no licences shall be granted.

Assignment stage process

66. Where there is one winning bidder, or more than one winning bidder, following completion of the principal stage, OFCOM shall determine the assignment of particular numbered lots following the steps in the assignment process.

CHAPTER 2

Assignment of lots of a particular type without bidding

Assignment of 40 GHz lots without bidding

67. Where there is only one winning bidder following completion of the principal stage for all of the 40 GHz lots, OFCOM shall assign all of the 40 GHz lots to that winning bidder.

Assignment of 26 GHz lower lots for the first period without bidding

68.—(1) Where there is only one winning bidder following completion of the principal stage for all of the 26 GHz lower lots, OFCOM shall assign all of the 26 GHz lower lots to that winning bidder for the first period.

(2) Where, for each bidder, there would be only one assignment stage option in the assignment stage option list for blocks of 26 GHz lower lots (if OFCOM proceeded to follow the process described in regulation 79), the blocks of spectrum as identified in the list shall be assigned to each bidder without bidding for the first period.

Assignment of 26 GHz upper lots for the first period without bidding

69.—(1) Where there is only one winning bidder for all of the 26 GHz upper lots, OFCOM shall assign all of the 26 GHz upper lots to that winning bidder for the first period.

(4) The list of possible blocks of numbered 40 GHz lots provided to each bidder may be different for each bidder.

(5) The list shall be known as the “40 GHz lots assignment stage option list” and each block of numbered 40 GHz lots in that list shall be known as a “40 GHz lots assignment stage option”.

Preparing a 40 GHz lots assignment stage option list for each bidder

(5) Where there is more than one valid combination of 40 GHz assignment stage bids for which the total value is equal highest, OFCOM shall employ a method of random selection from amongst those valid combinations of 40 GHz assignment stage bids for which the value is equal highest to determine the winning combination of valid 40 GHz assignment stage bids.

Determination of 40 GHz lot first and second period additional prices

77. In respect of each winning 40 GHz assignment stage bid, OFCOM shall determine an amount in whole pounds (“40 GHz lot additional price”) which shall be payable by the relevant winning bidder in accordance with Schedule 4.

(3) The winning combination of valid 26 GHz lot second period assignment stage bids shall be the valid combination of 26 GHz lot second period assignment stage bids, determined in accordance with this regulation, regulation 91 or regulation 93, having the highest total value of amounts bid.

(4) A combination of valid 26 GHz lot second period assignment stage bids is a valid combination of 26 GHz lot second period assignment stage bids if—

- (a) within that combination there is one valid 26 GHz lot second period assignment stage bid from each winning bidder for 26 GHz lots;

- (c) no numbered 26 GHz lower lot or 26 GHz upper lot is included in more than one of the 26 GHz lot second period assignment stage bids included in the combination of valid 26 GHz lot second period assignment stage bids.

(5) Where there is more than one valid combination of 26 GHz lot second period assignment stage bids for which the total value is equal highest, OFCOM shall employ a method of random selection from amongst those valid combinations of 26 GHz lot second period assignment stage bids for which the value is equal highest to determine the winning combination of valid 26 GHz lot second period assignment stage bids.

Determination of 26 GHz lot second period additional prices

93. In respect of each winning 26 GHz lot second period assignment stage bid, OFCOM shall determine an amount in whole pounds (“26 GHz lot second period additional price”) which shall be payable by the relevant winning bidder in accordance with Schedule 7.

Determination of 40 GHz lot additional prices

Additional price

1.—(1) OFCOM shall determine an additional price for each winning 40 GHz assignment stage bid by imposition of the requirements that the additional prices must satisfy that are set out in paragraphs 2 to 5.

(2) Where an additional price so determined includes a fraction of a pound, the additional price shall be that price rounded up to the nearest whole pound.

First requirement

2. The additional price for each winning 40 GHz assignment stage bid shall be no less than zero and no more than the amount of that winning 40 GHz assignment stage bid.

Second requirement

3.—(1) Taking the additional prices for the winning 40 GHz assignment stage bids together, the additional prices shall be such that if—

- (a) the amount bid by each winning bidder for the 40 GHz assignment stage option selected in its winning 40 GHz assignment stage bid had been the additional price rather than the amount of its winning 40 GHz assignment stage bid (“reduced winning 40 GHz assignment stage bid”), and
- (b) subject to sub-paragraph (2), the amount bid by each winning bidder in respect of each other valid 40 GHz assignment stage bid made by that bidder had been reduced by an amount equal to the difference between the amount of its winning 40 GHz assignment stage bid and the additional price for that relevant winning 40 GHz assignment stage bid, the combination of the reduced winning 40 GHz assignment stage bids submitted by the winning bidders would have been the valid combination of 40 GHz assignment stage bids or one of the valid combinations of 40 GHz assignment stage bids (as the case may be) having the highest total value of amounts bid.

(2) Where the amount of a bid has been reduced in accordance with sub-paragraph (1)(b) and is less than zero, the amount of that bid shall be treated as if it were zero for the purposes of this paragraph.

(3) The bids mentioned in sub-paragraphs (1)(a) and (1)(b) shall, after reduction of the amount of those bids in accordance with those paragraphs, be treated as valid 40 GHz assignment stage bids for the purposes of this paragraph.

Third requirement

4. Taking the additional prices for the winning 40 GHz assignment stage bids together, the total of those additional prices shall be no greater than the total of any other prices for the winning 40 GHz assignment stage bids that satisfy the requirements set out in paragraphs 2 and 3.

Fourth requirement

5.—(1) Taking the additional prices for the winning 40 GHz assignment stage bids together, the opportunity cost variance of those additional prices calculated in accordance with sub-paragraph (2) shall be less than the opportunity cost variance, calculated in accordance with sub-paragraph (2), of any other prices for the winning 40 GHz assignment stage bids that satisfy the requirements set out in paragraphs 2 to 4.

(2) The opportunity cost variance (“OCVA”) of prices mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) is the amount calculated in accordance with the formula $OCVA = \sum (p_A - c_A)^2$ summing over all winning bidders where—

- (a) “ p_A ” is the additional price for a winning 40 GHz assignment stage bid for winner A; and
- (b) “ c_A ” is the amount calculated in accordance with the formula set out in sub-paragraph (3) in respect of that winning 40 GHz assignment stage bid.

(3) The formula is $c_A = b_A - (t - u_A)$ where—

- (a) “ u_A ” is the amount calculated in accordance with sub-paragraph (4);
- (b) “ t ” is the total amount of the winning 40 GHz assignment stage bids; and
- (c) “ b_A ” is the amount of the winning 40 GHz assignment stage bid for which p_A is the price.

(4) The amount calculated in accordance with this sub-paragraph is the total amount of the valid combination of 40 GHz assignment stage bids or one of the valid combinations of 40 GHz assignment stage bids (as the case may be) having the highest total value of amounts bid where, for each 40 GHz assignment stage bid made by the winning bidder that submitted the winning 40 GHz assignment stage bid for which p_A is the price, the amount of that 40 GHz assignment stage bid is treated as if it were zero for the purposes of this sub-paragraph.

(5) Where the amount of a 40 GHz assignment stage bid is treated as if it were zero in accordance with sub-paragraph (4), that 40 GHz assignment stage bid shall be treated as a valid 40 GHz assignment stage bid for the purposes of that sub-paragraph.

Interpretation

6. In this Schedule “valid combination of 40 GHz assignment stage bids” shall be construed in accordance with regulation 76 as the context requires.

Determination of 26 GHz lower lot first period additional prices

Additional price

First requirement

2. The additional price for each winning 26 GHz lower assignment stage bid shall be no less than zero and no more than the amount of that winning 26 GHz lower assignment stage bid.

Second requirement

3.—(1) Taking the additional prices for the winning 26 GHz lower assignment stage bids together, the additional prices shall be such that if—

- (a) the amount bid by each winning bidder for the 26 GHz lower assignment stage option selected in its winning 26 GHz lower assignment stage bid had been the additional price rather than the amount of its winning 26 GHz lower assignment stage bid (“reduced winning 26 GHz lower assignment stage bid”), and
- (b) subject to sub-paragraph (2), the amount bid by each winning bidder in respect of each other valid 26 GHz lower assignment stage bid made by that bidder had been reduced by an amount equal to the difference between the amount of its winning 26 GHz lower assignment stage bid and the additional price for that relevant winning 26 GHz lower assignment stage bid, the combination of the reduced winning 26 GHz lower assignment stage bids submitted by the winning bidders would have been the valid combination of 26 GHz lower assignment stage bids or one of the valid combinations of 26 GHz lower assignment stage bids (as the case may be) having the highest total value of amounts bid.

(2) Where the amount of a bid has been reduced in accordance with sub-paragraph (1)(b) and is less than zero, the amount of that bid shall be treated as if it were zero for the purposes of this paragraph.

(3) The bids mentioned in sub-paragraphs (1)(a) and (1)(b) shall, after reduction of the amount of those bids in accordance with those paragraphs, be treated as valid 26 GHz lower assignment stage bids for the purposes of this paragraph.

Third requirement

4. Taking the additional prices for the winning 26 GHz lower assignment stage bids together, the total of those additional prices shall be no greater than the total of any other prices for the winning 26 GHz lower assignment stage bids that satisfy the requirements set out in paragraphs 2 and 3.

Fourth requirement

5.—(1) Taking the additional prices for the winning 26 GHz lower assignment stage bids together, the opportunity cost variance of those additional prices calculated in accordance with sub-paragraph (2) shall be less than the opportunity cost variance, calculated in accordance with sub-paragraph (2), of any other prices for the winning 26 GHz lower assignment stage bids that satisfy the requirements set out in paragraphs 2 to 4.

(2) The opportunity cost variance (“OCVA”) of prices mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) is the amount calculated in accordance with the formula $OCVA = \sum (p_A - c_A)^2$ summing over all winning bidders where—

- (a) “ p_A ” is the price for a winning 26 GHz lower assignment stage bid for winner A; and
- (b) “ c_A ” is the amount calculated in accordance with the formula set out in sub-paragraph (3) in respect of that winning 26 GHz lower assignment stage bid.

(3) The formula is $c_A = b_A - (t - u_A)$ where—

- (a) “ u_A ” is the amount calculated in accordance with sub-paragraph (4);
- (b) “ t ” is the total amount of the winning 26 GHz lower assignment stage bids; and
- (c) “ b_A ” is the amount of the winning 26 GHz lower assignment stage bid for which p_A is the price.

(4) The amount calculated in accordance with this sub-paragraph is the total amount of the valid combination of 26 GHz lower assignment stage bids or one of the valid combinations of 26 GHz lower assignment stage bids (as the case may be) having the highest total value of amounts bid where, for each 26 GHz lower assignment stage bid made by the winning bidder that submitted the winning 26 GHz lower assignment stage bid for which p_A is the price, the amount of that 26 GHz lower assignment stage bid is treated as if it were zero for the purposes of this sub-paragraph.

(5) Where the amount of a 26 GHz lower assignment stage bid is treated as if it were zero in accordance with sub-paragraph (4), that 26 GHz lower assignment stage bid shall be treated as a valid 26 GHz lower assignment stage bid for the purposes of that sub-paragraph.
