Q1. Do you agree with our proposal to remove the requirement for licence-exempt indoor mobile repeaters to carry a 2G and/or 3G signal? If not, please set out your reasons with any supporting evidence.	Nextivity agrees with the proposal to remove the requirement for licence-exempt indoor mobile repeaters to carry a 2G and/or 3G signal. Nextivity agrees with Ofcom’s reasoning, and we note that this brings IR2102 in-line with similar regulations in, for instance, the Republic of Ireland and the USA that do not place any restrictions on the relaying of a 4G signal and where no instances of the perceived problems with non-VoLTE phones and emergency calling have to our knowledge been reported.
Q2. Do you agree with our proposals to amend the 2022 Regulations and associated Interface Requirements to align the use of in-vehicle mobile repeaters with the provisions for use of indoor repeaters? If not, please set out your reasons with any supporting evidence.	Nextivity agrees with the proposals to amend the 2022 Regulations and associated Interface Requirements to align the use of in-vehicle mobile repeaters with the provisions for use of indoor repeaters.
