

Hanson, D

I am visually impaired and only heard about this today, too late to count but felt I would just e-mail.

I do not feel that politicians should be allowed to present radio or television programmes. That allows them an additional platform to influence which does not support fair, balanced or impartial opportunity for ALL political groups/parties.

It also leaves those financially 'able' to 'buy' influence rather than fair and transparent democratic processes.