

John Morgan

Question	Your response
Question 1: Do you agree with our provisional conclusions from our review of the BBC's assessment of the public value of the proposals for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> I. the proposed DAB+ music stations; and II. 5 Sports Extra. Please provide evidence to support your views, specifying which our conclusions you are referring to.	Confidential? – N I would much prefer that the BBC restored its local radio services, rather than continuing to transform them into regional services. It would be beneficial to employ local people to deliver these services, as they have roots inside the community they serve. The restoration should include the return of local information and news, and not just playing recorded music, which seems to be the norm for radio programmes these days, and is outdated, as other platforms are more suited to this.
Question 2: Do you agree with our assessment of the likely impact of the proposals on fair and effective competition (including as set out in annex 1)? Please provide your answer and any supporting evidence separately for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> I. R1A, R1D and R3U; II. R2E; and III. 5SE 	Confidential? – N I would much prefer that the BBC restored its local radio services, rather than continuing to transform them into regional services. It would be beneficial to employ local people to deliver these services, as they have roots inside the community they serve. The restoration should include the return of local information and news, and not just playing recorded music, which seems to be the norm for radio programmes these days, and is outdated, as other platforms are more suited to this.
Question 3: Do you agree with our provisional conclusions on the BBC's proposed changes to its radio services? Please provide evidence to support your views, indicating which of the BBC's proposed changes you are referring to.	Confidential? – N I would much prefer that the BBC restored its local radio services, rather than continuing to transform them into regional services. It would be beneficial to employ local people to

Question	Your response
	deliver these services, as they have roots inside the community they serve. The restoration should include the return of local information and news, and not just playing recorded music, which seems to be the norm for radio programmes these days, and is outdated, as other platforms are more suited to this.
Question 4: Do you agree with our proposal not to set additional operating licence conditions on R1D, R1A and R3U if we approve them?	Confidential? – N I would much prefer that the BBC restored its local radio services, rather than continuing to transform them into regional services. It would be beneficial to employ local people to deliver these services, as they have roots inside the community they serve. The restoration should include the return of local information and news, and not just playing recorded music, which seems to be the norm for radio programmes these days, and is outdated, as other platforms are more suited to this.