
Radio 2 extra

From Jonny Pringle <[REDACTED]>

Date Thu 10/04/25 22:56

To BBCAudioproposals <BBCAudioproposals@ofcom.org.uk>

Hi OFCOM

I fail to see why you would reject the application for R2 extra.

I note Boom radio are one of the major objectors. However, their station plays mostly 1960s music, where as R2 Extra aimed to play 1980s .

I had the misfortune to listen to Boom recently. Other than being peppered with many commercial breaks, I felt I was listening to a radio station for my parents generation! After a bit, I d had enough. Hang the DJ! (They won't play The Smiths on Boom, at least for another 25 years!!)

As a 51 year old male, R1 plays music for teenagers. As for R2, unless you like Sam Fender, Coldplay, Ed Sheeran, Lewis Capaldi etc , it's not worth listening too.

So come on OFCOM, approve R2 extra!

Thanks

Jonathan Pringle
[REDACTED]

JP