

Ofcom should insist that all “03” numbers be charged as other “geographic” numbers and included in any “bundled minutes”.

Ofcom should insist that “0870” numbers are no longer described as “national” rate but treated as other shared revenue numbers. Similarly the description of “0845” numbers as “being the cost of a local call” (a practice prevalent on the CSV Action Lines carried by BBC local radio stations) should be prevented.
