26. Sanctions for breach of Condition

Section 109(3) of the 1990 Act

- (1)
 - (a) If Ofcom is satisfied that the Licensee has failed to comply with any Condition of the Licence and that failure can be appropriately remedied by the inclusion in the Licensed service of a correction or a statement of findings (or both) and Ofcom has given the Licensee a reasonable opportunity to make representations to it about the matters complained of, Ofcom may direct the Licensee to include in the Licensed Service a correction or statement of findings (or both) in such form and at such time or times as Ofcom may determine.

- (b) The Licensee may, when including a correction or statement of findings (or both) in the Licensed Service in pursuance of a direction from Ofcom, announce that they are doing so in pursuance of such a direction.

Section 66(1)(a) of the 1996 Act

- (a) If Ofcom is satisfied that the Licensee has failed to comply with any Condition of the Licence or with any direction given by Ofcom under the Licence and it has given them a reasonable opportunity to make representations to it about the matters complained of, it may serve on them a notice requiring them to pay to Ofcom, within a specified period, a specified financial penalty.

- (b) Subject to Condition 26(2)(e) below, the amount of any financial penalty imposed pursuant to Condition 26(2)(a) shall not exceed whichever is the greater of £250,000 (or such other sum as the Secretary of State may by order specify under section 69 of the 1996 Act) and 5 per cent. of the aggregate amount of the shares of multiplex revenue attributable to the Licensee in relation to relevant multiplex services in respect of relevant accounting periods (as determined in accordance with Section 57(2) and (3) of the 1996 Act in relation to national radio multiplex services and Section 15(2) and (3) of the 1996 Act in relation to general multiplex services).

Section 66(5) of the 1996 Act

- (d) Where in the case of any relevant multiplex service, the first accounting period of the multiplex provider throughout which the Licensee provides the Licensed Service for broadcasting by means of that relevant multiplex service (the "first period") has not ended when the penalty is imposed, then for the purpose of this Condition, the share of multiplex revenue attributable to the Licensee in relation to that relevant multiplex service for the relevant accounting period shall be taken to be the amount which Ofcom estimates to be the share of multiplex revenue attributable to them for the first period.

Section 66(4) of the 1996 Act

- (e) Where the Licensee has not provided any digital additional sound services for broadcasting by means of a relevant multiplex service, the amount of any financial penalty imposed pursuant to Condition 26(2)(a) shall not exceed £250,000.

Section 66(1)(b) of the 1996 Act

- (3)
 - (a) If Ofcom is satisfied that the Licensee has failed to comply with any Condition of the Licence or with any direction given under the Licence and it has given them a reasonable opportunity to make representations to it about the matters complained of, it may serve on them a notice providing that the Licence is to expire on a specified date at least one year from the date on which the notice is served on the Licensee.

Section 66(8) of the 1996 Act

- (b) Where the Licence is due to expire on a particular date by virtue of a notice served on the Licensee under Condition 26(3)(a), Ofcom may, on the application of the Licensee, by a further notice served on them at any time before that date, revoke that notice if it is satisfied that such revocation is justified by virtue of the conduct of the Licensee in relation to the operation of the Licensed Service since the date of the earlier notice.
- (4) Any exercise by Ofcom of its powers under Condition 26(3) shall be without prejudice to Ofcom's powers under Condition 26(1), (2) and (4) and Condition 27.

Section 66(1)(c) of the 1996 Act

- (5) If Ofcom is satisfied that the Licensee has failed to comply with any Condition of the Licence or with any direction given under the Licence and it has given them a reasonable opportunity to make representations to it about the matters complained of, it may serve on them a notice suspending the Licence for a specified period not exceeding six months.

Section 43(1)(e) of the 1996 Act

Any amounts payable under this Condition 26(6) shall be payable by the Licensee in such manner and at such time or times as Ofcom shall determine.

27. Revocation

Section 111 of the 1990 Act and Section 66(10) of the 1996 Act

- (1)
- (a) If Ofcom is satisfied that the Licensee is failing to comply with any Condition of the Licence or with any direction given by Ofcom under the Licence and that that failure is such that, if not remedied, it would justify the revocation of the Licence it shall serve on the Licensee a notice:
- (i) stating that Ofcom is so satisfied;
 - (ii) specifying the respects in which, in the opinion of Ofcom, the Licensee is failing to comply with any such Condition or direction; and
 - (iii) stating that, unless the Licensee takes, within such period as is specified in the notice, such steps to remedy the failure as are so specified, Ofcom will revoke the Licence.
- (b) If at the end of the period specified in any notice served under Condition 27(1)(a) above Ofcom is satisfied that the Licensee has failed to take the steps specified in the notice and that it is necessary in the public interest to revoke the Licence Ofcom shall serve on the Licensee a notice revoking the Licence.
- (2) Ofcom may revoke the Licence by notice in writing served on the Licensee and taking effect either from the time of service or on a date specified in the notice, in any of the following circumstances:

Section 43(5) of the 1996 Act

Section 111(5) of the 1990 Act

- (ii) in connection with their application for the Licence, provided Ofcom with information which was false in a material particular or withheld any material information with the intention of causing Ofcom to be misled;

Section 44 of the 1996 Act

- (c) if, where the Licensee is a body, a change in the nature or characteristics of the Licensee or any change in the persons having control over or interests in the Licensee, or any change giving rise to a disqualification under Part II of Schedule 2 to the 1990 Act or a contravention of a requirement imposed by or under Schedule 14 to the Communications Act in relation to their holding of the Licence takes place (whether before or after the Commencement Date), which change is such that, if it fell to Ofcom to determine whether to award the Licence to the Licensee in the new circumstances of the case, it would be induced by the change to refrain from awarding the Licence to the Licensee;

Section 42(2) of the 1996 Act

- (d) if Ofcom ceases to be satisfied that the Licensee is a fit and proper person to hold the Licence;

Section 42(7) of the 1996 Act

Sections 144 and 145 of the 1996 Act

- (4) If the Licensee is convicted of an offence under Section 144 of the 1996 Act and the court by which the Licensee is convicted makes an order disqualifying them from holding a licence during a period specified in the order, or if the Licensee is disqualified from holding a licence pursuant to section 145(3) of the 1996 Act in consequence of an order disqualifying an individual from holding a licence, this Licence shall be treated as being revoked with effect from the time when the order takes effect.
