

Local TV decision: That's Lancashire change request

Your TV Limited (That's Lancashire) is the holder of the local digital television programme service licence ("the Licence") for Preston. The service provided by this licence holder must meet specific content obligations set out in the Licence known as 'Programming Commitments'.

On 10 October 2015 That's Lancashire made a request to Ofcom for a variation to the Programming Commitments in the Licence. The details are set out here (changes in red):

Statutory framework

Under the Broadcasting Act 1996 (“1996 Act”) licences for local digital television programme services (“L-DTPS”) must include such conditions as appear to Ofcom to be appropriate for securing, amongst other things, that the character of the licensed service, as proposed by the licence holder when making the application, is maintained for the duration of the licence.<sup>1</sup> This requirement is reflected in Condition 5(1) of the Licence and the Programming Commitments set out in the Licence. Ofcom has power to vary the conditions of a licence by notice<sup>2</sup>.

The statutory framework provides that conditions included in an L-DTPS licence may authorise Ofcom to consent to a departure from the character of the service if four statutory grounds are met, and sets out a procedural requirement for a public consultation before Ofcom can decide to consent to a departure from the character of the service<sup>3</sup>. These requirements only apply where the change requested is a departure from the character of the service.

Ofcom decision

The Ofcom Board has delegated the discharge of certain of its functions in relation to television and radio broadcast licensing to a committee known as the Broadcast Licensing Committee (“BLC”), chaired by a member of the Ofcom Board. The BLC has responsibility for deciding on the award of, and proposals for significant variations to, L-DTPS licences.

The BLC noted that the requested changes would not affect the number of hours of first-run local programming or the number of hours of first-run local programming in peak-time. Whilst there would be some simplification of the scheduling detail set out in the Programming Commitments in respect of the service’s local news and current affairs obligations, overall the number of hours of local news programming would remain at existing levels. The BLC also considered that the requested descriptive changes to the first part of the Programming Commitments would not alter the character of service.

After careful deliberation, the BLC considered that the character of service would be maintained following the requested variations, particularly in view of the fact that the number of first run local programming hours and first run local news hours would continue to be delivered at the existing levels. Accordingly, the BLC decided on 3 November 2015 that the requested variations would not amount to a departure from the character of the service and consented to the variation request.
